DESCRIZIONE

Objectives

This call aims to advance knowledge and inform governance, sustainable development, and international politics in the context of a future ice-free Arctic. The objectives are to improve understanding of the processes, feedbacks, and impacts of an ice-free Arctic at local, regional, and global scales, and to enhance observation and monitoring capabilities of Arctic changes. The call seeks to generate knowledge-based recommendations for sustainable development, environmental conservation, climate adaptation, and resilience, with a focus on supporting evidence-based decision-making at regional, European, and global levels. The results are expected to contribute to European leadership in ocean–climate–biodiversity-cryosphere science and to global scientific assessments and international initiatives. Eligible applicants include consortia of legal entities from EU Member States and Associated Countries, with international cooperation strongly encouraged, especially with All-Atlantic Ocean Research and Innovation Alliance partners. All international organisations are exceptionally eligible for funding, and the Joint Research Centre (JRC) may participate as a consortium member.

Funding

The support is provided as a non-refundable grant under the Horizon Europe Research and Innovation Actions (RIA) scheme. The funding rate is up to 100% of eligible costs. Each project is expected to receive 8.000.000 EUR, with a total topic budget of 16.000.000 EUR and an expected two grants to be awarded.
