Obiettivi

Objectives

This incentive aims to stimulate the integration of whole life carbon data and energy performance assessment in the building sector by supporting the development of digital data exchange platforms. The primary objective is to improve the accuracy and interoperability of building information tools and certification schemes, aligning with EU policy on sustainability and decarbonization, such as the Energy Performance of Buildings Directive and Construction Products Regulation. Eligible applicants include all legal entities except those established in China, and proposals must be demonstrable across a diverse range of building typologies in at least three large-scale pilots.

Financing

The support will be provided in the form of a lump sum grant under the "HORIZON Innovation Actions" mechanism. The indicative budget for this call is €15,750,000, with an expected EU contribution per project of approximately €5,250,000, and about three projects funded. The funding rate for Innovation Actions is typically up to 70% of eligible costs, except for non-profit entities, which may receive up to 100%.

Restrictions and Indicators

The maximum project duration is not explicitly mentioned, but activities are expected to achieve Technology Readiness Level (TRL) 6-8 by project end. Projects must adhere to the general rules of Horizon Europe, including specific restrictions (e.g., legal entities from China are not eligible). Result indicators include the increase in digital tools for carbon and energy performance integration, enhanced data availability, validated data exchange platforms, and the tangible contribution to the Built4People partnership KPIs. Proposals must also ensure ethical use of data and the use of EU satellite-based systems if earth observation or navigation data is used.
