Descrizione

Objectives

This call aims to generate innovative knowledge and solutions to mitigate the harmful impacts of waterborne transport on aquatic ecosystems, especially in the context of adopting renewable low and zero-carbon fuels. The call targets legal entities eligible under Horizon Europe, excluding those established in China. The main objective is to improve the water resilience and good ecological status of European waters while supporting the Environmental targets of the European Union, including the European Water Resilience Strategy and European Ocean Pact. This topic also seeks comprehensive understanding and control of pollution arising from renewable fuels used in waterborne transport, both under normal and accidental conditions.

Funding

The available budget for this topic is EUR 14,000,000, with an expected EU contribution per project of around EUR 7,000,000. The funding will take a lump sum form under the Horizon Europe framework. The co-financing rate can reach up to 100% for eligible beneficiaries, as is standard for Research and Innovation Actions (RIA) under Horizon Europe. Approximately 2 grants are expected to be awarded under this topic. The funding supports all eligible direct costs as outlined by the Horizon Europe rules for lump sum grants.
