DESCRIZIONE

Objectives

This call aims to advance Europe's cultural and creative sectors and industries (CCSI) by leveraging the intersection between these sectors and the social economy. Projects are expected to develop, test and validate innovative frameworks and models integrating social economy principles within culture and creativity to benefit sustainable and inclusive development. The initiative addresses cultural and creative sector entities, social economy enterprises, policymakers, and multidisciplinary research consortia engaged in enhancing CCSI's social impact, economic resilience, and innovation capacity. Proposals should generate evidence-based policy frameworks, measurable indicators for socioeconomic impact, and scalable business models balancing profitability and social responsibility.

Funding

The co-financing rate for this Horizon Europe Research and Innovation Action is usually up to 100% of eligible costs, with funding provided as a lump sum. The total indicative envelope for the call is EUR 10,500,000, with the expected EU contribution per project ranging from EUR 3,000,000 to EUR 3,500,000, and three projects expected to be funded. There is no explicit minimum or maximum eligible investment per project stated for this specific topic beyond the EU contribution range.
