DESCRIZIONE

Objectives

This call aims to enhance societal resilience to disasters by actively engaging younger generations, particularly those aged 13 to 30, in disaster preparedness, response, and recovery. The focus is on integrating digital innovation, education, and community involvement to empower youth as contributors to resilience-building. Eligible applicants include consortia with at least two Civil Society Organisations (CSOs) and two NGOs representing youth or youth organisations from at least three different EU Member States or Associated Countries. The call encourages the involvement of citizens, local authorities, and practitioners, with a strong emphasis on participatory and youth-led approaches. Legal entities established in China are not eligible to participate.

Funding

The support is provided as a non-refundable grant under the Horizon Europe Research and Innovation Actions (RIA) scheme. The funding rate is up to 100% of eligible costs. Each project is expected to receive a lump sum contribution of €3 million, with a total topic budget of €6 million and two grants expected to be awarded.
